Alabama Baptist Church news

By CATHERINE HASKINS

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold. Proverbs 22 Chapt. 1 Verse.

The Alabama Chuch wishes to thank each and everyone for helping with our homecoming dinner and service on the 1st Sunday in Sept. Our homecoming at the Alabama Baptist Church was a great success, an overflowing crowd attended the services, and a lot of out of town guests were present. During the week following, our revival was held and for the week our pastor, Rev. Curtis Elliott, conducted the revival and had good services every night. On Sunday Rev. Elliott took his text from Ezekiel 37-3. "These Bones can Live" on Sunday - Monday-Revelation 22 - 1&2 - "Crossing Over". Tuesday - 2 Kings 20-1"Get Right with God." Wednesday - Hebrews 11:8 "Making Right Move For God." Thursday - St. Johns 20:24 "The Missing Man". On Friday night, St. Luke 15-18, "Time." Every message was good. Our pastor really preached every night and the offering was good throughout the week. Our members from Washington, the Wade family, really support us in different ways. Sis Mary Marsh gave the church two thousand dollars, and Miss Grace Phinous gave one thousand on the first Sunday, and Sis Lucille Anthony gave one hundred dollars. We thank everyone for supporting us.

Miss Alice Moore from Pamplin, Va. entered back in college. She is teaching at the Willard Elementary School in Tidewater Drive in Norfolk, Va. We welcome all students back to their post.

First Sunday in October our pastor, Rev. Elliott was on vacation. Rev. Daniel Bedford of Farmville brought us the message and Rev. Edward was our guest for the morning. The prayer service was lead by Deacon James Moore and Mrs. Alice Moore. Everyone joined in. Scripture was taken from Proverbs 22:1-13 for the morning and for his message was taken from Daniel 3:17-18.

Our sympathy goes out to the families of Wiley, Watkins and others. Sis of Mrs. Margaret Wesley passed, and the mother of Mr. James Ratcliff, and our grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Watkins and mother. Our hearts are filled. We are asking for your prayers.

We are praying for the sick and shut-in everywhere. May God Bless You.

St. Luke News

On October 4 in the absence of Pastor Rev. J.E. McLaughlin who was ill and in the hospital in Danville, the regular services at St. Luke Baptist Church were carried out as usual at 11 a.m. The Rev. W. Yuille was asked by the pastor to take charge. Rev. Alvin Jones taught the adult class in church school and the Senior Choir gave the music. Rev. Yuille gave a great message, text, St.John 11-14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly,Lazarus is dead. Subject "The Mission of Waking The Living Dead". The church has many missions. But one ministry, spiritual life is hope when we do not believe this is spiritual death. This was well taken by the listeners. The offering was very good.

The little children in the audience were recognized by the preacher.

After services at church Sunday, Rev. Alvin Jones and Mrs. Louise went to Danville to see Rev. McLaughlin. Also took a gift to him from the church. At this writing, Rev. McLaughlin is improved some.

On the fourth Sunday in September for the 11 o'clock services at the Morning Star Baptist Church, Rev. Alvin Jones was in charge and Mrs. Louise Canada and her adult choir gave the music without a pianist, which was well taken by the people.

Deacon Milton Nowlin who was recovering from an accident on his job in Lynchburg was present with his choir at Morning Star. He and his family were dinner guest in the home of Mrs. Louise Canada.

On Sept. 29, the Advisory Council of the R.S.V.P. at Lynchburg and some of the R.S.V.P.ers went to Richmond to the State Fair and to be present to see the quilt that the R.S.V.P.ers of the different counties of the state made and presented to the Lt. Gov. Robb, honoring the state of Virginia. This was inspiring. Many interesting things were seen while there.

Mrs. Louise Canada, a member of the advisory council, was present and went along with them and enjoyed the trip.

The St.Luke choir is appearing on a song program at the Evergreen Baptist Church Sun., Oct. 11 at 3 p.m.

The W.S.C.S. of St.Luke have made plans for their annual woman's day, October 25. Program begins at 3 p.m.

"But by the grace of God I am what I am" 1 Corinthians 15:10

An inspiring and most uplifting message was delivered by Rev. Yuille last Sunday morning. Our hearts tingled with reverence as Rev. Yuille preached from 1 Corinthians. His subject was "The Grace of God". He so vividly explained that we've come this far by grace. He reminded us that while some people are happy and elated, others are praying and waiting to be touched by the grace of God.

We were happy to have Dea. and Mrs. Rufus Fleshman from New York to be with us for Sunday School and morning worship. Mrs. Fleshman played the piano so beautifully for the devotional period in Sunday School.

The Gospel Entertainers will celebrate their fifth anniversary, October 18, 1981 at 3 p.m. The guests will be Mrs. Louise Scates from Chatham, Va. The Brothers of Faith from Lynchburg, Va. and Mr. Nolan Ware and the Gospeletters from Gladstone, Va. You are cordially invited to attend.
